"Acceptance means that we declare our readiness to bear the heavy financial burdens demanded year by year. Refusal would, however, mean surrendering the basis of our entire industrial activities and as a consequence dismemberment of our economic body, already so greatly weakened, and the shackling of our entire industrial life.

"For these reasons the Government accepts the ultimatum. We know that acceptance by reason of the place Germany will occupy in the economy of the world, will entail the gravest consequences. The responsibility for this falls on the Allies.

"But there is one point concerning which there must be no obscurity. It would be useless to say 'yes' without the resolution to do our utmost to meet the obligations imposed upon us. By acceptance, we believe, we will remove the imminent threats of occupation of the Ruhr. The fear often expressed that occupation will take place in any case, whether we sign or not, is not supported by any passage in the ultimatum.

"There is no need for me to show why, in taking the decision, we ought to turn our eyes to Upper Silesia. In that respect we have firm confidence in the results of the plebiscite.
